

Youth Leadership and China Volunteer Summer Program

(Spring 2017. Class room: 207. Sunday: 15:00 – 15:50)

Youth Leadership and China Volunteer Summer program will start with one semester of class in Spring, followed with two weeks of leadership experience in one of the best high schools in Jiangsu province, China. This course in Spring semester will mainly focus on developing team building, leadership, presentation skills, fundamental teaching strategies and basic life skills. In summer, all students will travel to a rural high school in Jiangsu province (Bao Ying High School/江苏省宝应中学) to teach English and American culture for two weeks. Besides the teaching and leadership experience, students will have opportunities to live in campus, eat at a regular high school cafeteria, participate a Boarding school life in China, and explore the difference between Chinese education system and American education system. There will be a lot of activities besides campus life, such as visiting local attractions, learning traditional Chinese dances or martial arts, making traditional Chinese food, playing traditional music instruments, etc. Every day will be occupied from morning to night, including weekends. It will be an exciting and eye opening experience for everyone.

Xilin NW Chinese School's Youth Leadership and China Volunteer Summer program in 2016 was a great success. Students who participated the program not only gained leadership experience, but also cultivated friendship as a bonus. It was a great bonding experience. Our students challenged themselves and became more mature after finishing two weeks of high school life in China.
