

Class Description: Senior Advanced English Class

This class is for advanced level students who are learning English as a second/other language. The major focus of the class is on speaking and listening with some practice in reading, writing, and grammar. A textbook and supplemental material, such as plays, short stories, pronunciation games and conversation cards, are used to practice English during class.